Our athletes had a great day at the Baton Rouge Metro Championship Meet on Saturday, October 27, with our boys placing 7th out of 23 teams and our girls placing 10th out of 20 teams. Most of our athletes ran season or personal bests, and I could not be more proud of them and how they have performed this season. The girls were led by Alana Simon who ran an outstanding time of 13:07 to place 6th overall. Other top scorers were Emma Graves, Taylor Gray, Kennedy Papillion, and Leslie Stevens. The boys were led by Dawson Stoeckle who placed 17th overall. Other top scorers were Preston Stoeckle, Ethan Hunter, Turner Hester, and Christian Francis. This Saturday, November 3rd we will compete in our last meet of the season at the Warror Dash/Middle School State Championship.
